Be in demand with a Bryant University Master of Science in Taxation degree. This highly specialized program is designed to provide you with the knowledge and analytical skills necessary to become a leader in your field.

Most MST students are experienced finance professionals, accountants, or attorneys who are seeking in-depth knowledge of taxation in order to more effectively advise both individual and corporate clients. You will gain a comprehensive understanding and a unique perspective that benefits your clients, your company, and your career.

Bryant’s MST faculty are leading tax practitioners who have worked with Fortune 500 corporations, state and federal governments, and high-wealth individuals in all areas of taxation and estate planning. Using current IRS law and court cases, you will learn to develop and apply tax solutions to the most complex situations to achieve the best outcomes.

"We have hired many Bryant graduates at our firm. Each one is extremely well trained in the fundamentals of accounting and business and has confidence, perseverance, a strong work ethic, and integrity that is unmistakably Bryant."
David DiSanto ’79, ’84 MST
Director of Business Development
DiSanto, Priest & Co.

BRYANT GRADUATE SCHOOL MISSION
The Graduate School at Bryant University empowers its graduates with the ability to compete and excel in a dynamic business environment. Bryant’s dedicated faculty successfully equips students with the analytical, technological, and interpersonal skills required to meet the challenges of working in a diverse and global marketplace.

FLEXIBILITY
The Bryant MST is a 10-course, 30-credit graduate program designed for students who are looking for an advanced degree focused solely on taxation, with the flexibility to specialize within the field for maximum career advancement.

Students may enter the MST program in the fall, spring, or summer semesters and complete the program by taking courses in the evenings. The schedule is flexible, offering students the opportunity to enroll in one or two courses per semester. A leave of absence from the program during tax season is available.

Classes meet one evening per week, allowing you to continue in your current career while earning your degree.

ACCOMPLISHED FACULTY
Working with faculty and other accomplished professionals, you will incorporate your own professional experience as you learn about tax planning and implications for individuals, corporations, partnerships, pensions, and small businesses. You will have the flexibility to choose electives in advanced areas of specialization to meet your career objectives.

A PROGRAM OF DISTINCTION
The Bryant University Graduate School of Business is accredited by AACSB International – The Association to Advance Collegiate Schools of Business, a distinction earned by only five percent of business programs in the world.
